White Hot Nights

It was one of Dallas' first scorching summer nights, but nothing can keep PYTs from a night out. Especially when Wilkinson liaison Vodi Cook is sending out invites for the third annual Young Friends of the Wilkinson Center White Party benefit at Saint Ann Restaurant. One hundred percent of proceeds went to the Wilkinson Center, a nonprofit dedicated to transforming the lives of Dallas families by providing pathways to self-sufficiency with dignity and respect. Lights went up; DJ Liz Farrell made the music; fire dancers and aerialists wowed the crowd; corporate sponsors Boardwalk Ferrari and Hublot elevated the scene; and everyone looked white-hot. -Nadia Dabbakeh
